
Every marker is an upper bound on the converged value of the committed polygonal geometry; the black bar is a certified two-sided bracket (equilibrated-flux lower bound).