
Every marker is an upper bound on the converged value of the committed polygonal geometry; the bars (magnified in the inset) are certified two-sided brackets (equilibrated-flux lower bound).