
Every marker is an upper bound on the converged value of the committed polygonal geometry; the black bar (magnified in the inset) is a certified two-sided bracket (equilibrated-flux lower bound).